

Well Done, My Child

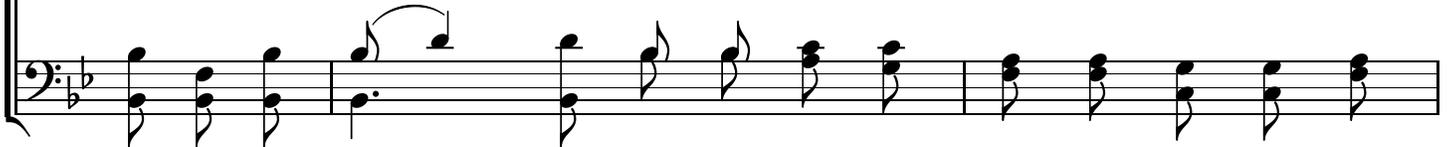

♩ = 80

1. As I go wind-ing my way to glo - ry land, the home of the soul,
2. I'll meet my friends and my loved ones gone be-fore, in heav-en's fair clime,
3. I now am wait-ing and long - ing for the day when I shall a - rise,

My life is filled with sor - row where I roam. (wher - e'er I roam)
In - side the gates they'll be to wel - come me. (to wel - come me)
And sail a - way a - cross the o - cean's foam. (the o - cean's foam)

But when I en - ter the gates of glo - ry land, which now is my goal,
Praise God, my trou-bles and cares will then be o'er in glo - ry sub - lime,
I'll be so hap-py to hear my Sav - ior say, in sweet par - a - dise,

My Lord will say, "My child you're wel - come home." (you're wel - come home)
With them I'll live for all e - ter - ni - ty. (e - ter - ni - ty)
"Well done, my child, you now are wel - come home." (you're wel - come home)

12

“Well done, my child,” _____ my Lord will say. _____
 (Well done, my child) _____ (My Lord will say)

15

With courage bold, you've stood for the right, _____
 A crown of life you've won. _____
 (A crown of life) _____ (A crown you've won)

20

“Well done, my child,” _____ He'll say that day. _____ Like Paul of (Well done, my child) _____ (He'll say that day)

24

old, you've fought a good fight, “Well done, my child, well done.” _____
 (Well done, my child) _____ (My child, well done)